CITY HAS.

THIS IS DUBAI.

Record-breaking achievements abound, staggering man-made feats of engineering and future host to Expo 2020, Dubai is rarely free from positive media attention.
The glittering cosmopolitan emirate is a truly designer city, boasting a lifestyle that's both unique and highly desirable.

Year round sunshine lends a superb backdrop to pristine beaches, sporting events, concerts and desert pursuits, plus glitzy malls
and numerous indoor leisure destinations offer cool comfort
when temperatures soar.

ADMIRE THE ENCHANTING
CITYSCAPE.

THE BURJ AREA.

The Burj area is an upscale mixed-use community combining commercial, residential, hospitality, entertainment, shopping and leisure facilities in open green spaces scattered with lakes and fountains.

Dubai's platinum square kilometre is home to the world's tallest tower, its largest shopping mall, iconic fountains and a host of other first-class amenities.

THE CENTRAL DISTRICT FOR COMMERCE AND LUXURY LIVING.

BUSINESS BAY.

Dubai's Business Bay shares characteristics with New York's Lower Manhattan in terms of its sleek skyscrapers and significance as the region's business capital. The area also pays homage to the crucial role of the Dubai Creek in the emirate's past and its importance in the future.

VIEW THE CITY FROM A NEW PERSPECTIVE.

SERENE WATERWAYS.

A network of 12 marine transport stations along the Dubai Creek extension will add a unique on-water perspective from which to explore the city.

Just moments away from Merano Tower, you can hop into a water taxi connecting you to various hotspots of the emirate such as Jumeirah, Business Bay and Bur Dubai.

EMBARK UPON A UNIQUE JOURNEY THROUGH THE EMIRATE.

DUBAI METRO.

There are two metro stations within walking distance from Merano Tower – Business Bay metro station and Burj Khalifa / Dubai Mall metro station.

The Dubai Metro is the lifeline of the city that allows passengers to easily access the entire emirate. What's more, the red line metro will soon extend to the Expo 2020 site at Dubai South.

ENVIABLE INFRASTRUCTURE.

With such a central location, your home provides direct access to Dubai's business district and the rest of the emirate via two main highways – Sheikh Zayed Road and Al Khail Road.

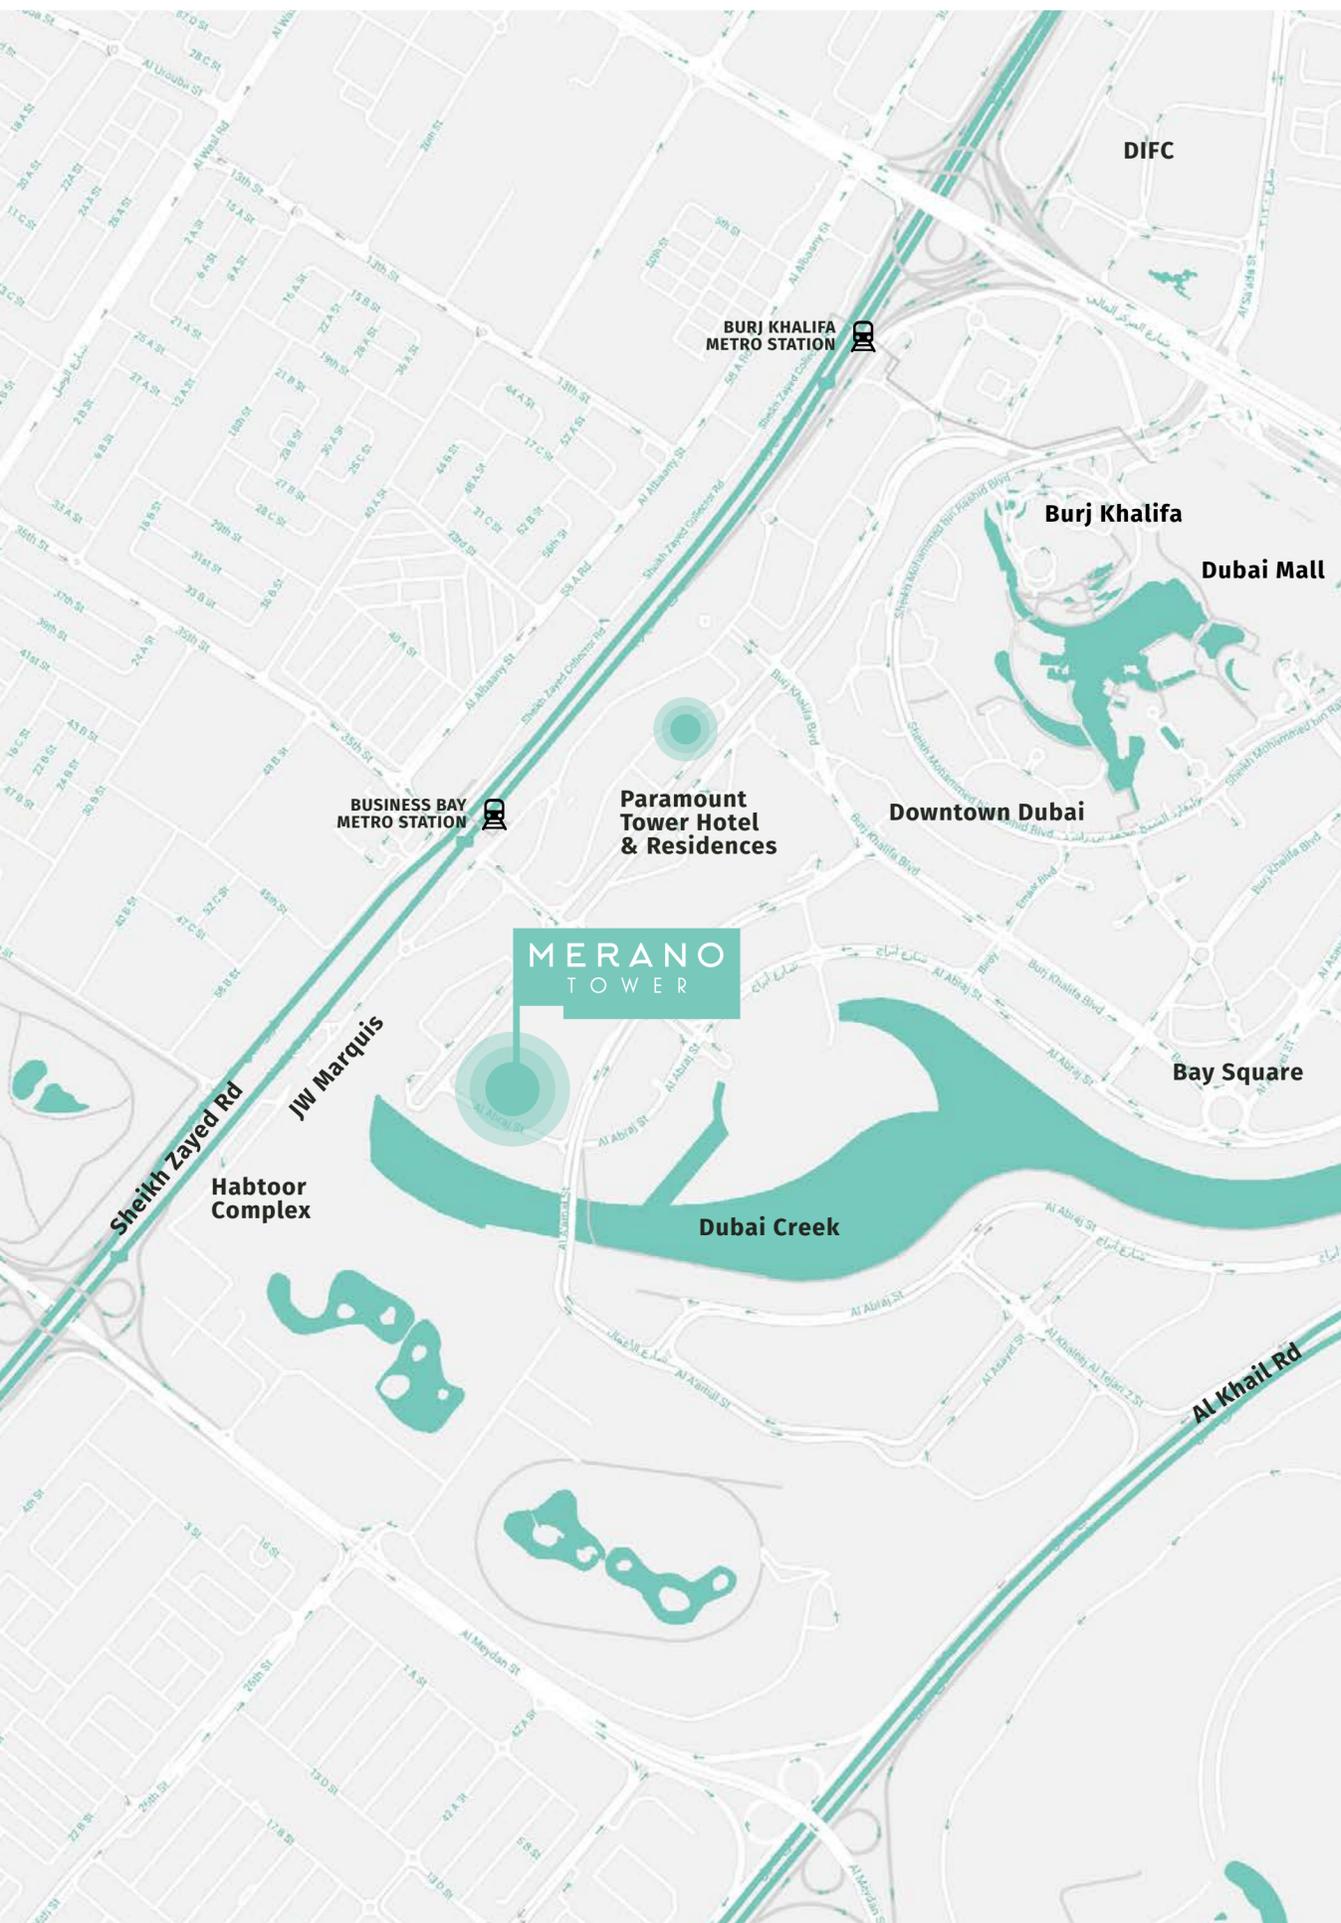

Moreover, two six-lane bridges over the Dubai Creek extension network are underway for Al Wasl Road and Jumeirah Beach Road.
